

Martin Klančičar - Nande (1903–1974), activist and partisan, was one of the main organizers of the liberation movement in the Celje region starting in 1943. As the secretary of the District Committee of the OF (Liberation Front) Celje-city, he participated in the action to free prisoners from the Stari Pisker. In May 1945, he led negotiations with the Germans and their allies in Celje. When the war command of the city was formed on 10th May 1945, he became its political commissar and, on 13th May 1945, addressed the gathered crowd from the balcony of the city hall.
